TCC Global Learning hosts musical performance and lecture by Carlos Odria

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (October 1, 2013) – On Tuesday, October 8, TCC Global Learning is hosting a musical performance and lecture by Carlos Odria in the Student Union Ballroom at 3 p.m. Ordia is a musician, composer and improviser who has studied various musical traditions from around the world—including styles such as Choro, Samba, Tango, Flamenco, Afro-Peruvian and Jazz. Odria performs and tours often with different ensembles throughout Florida and beyond.

The Latin American region encloses an incredible broad variety of cultural scenarios. In Odria's lecture and musical performance, he explores the indigenous music of countries such as Brazil, Peru, Cuba and Venezuela in order to show how their distinctive musical expressions embody unique cultural and social realities.

This event is free and open to the public. Attendance at this event qualifies as credit for the Global Gateway program.
